Beginning Chinese

The Confucius Institute at Arizona State University now offers Beginning Chinese and Individual Tutoring in Chinese. These courses are designed for individuals to gain a basic knowledge of Mandarin.

Why Learn Chinese?

Mandarin Chinese is the most widely used language in the world. Learn to speak Mandarin and you can speak with millions of people around the world.

Business: Having a Mandarin language conversational skill will allow you to compete effectively in the global economy; China is one of America’s largest trading partners. Business people who have this skill have an advantage in connecting with the Chinese market.

Travel: Asia is a popular travel destination. A basic knowledge of Mandarin will allow you to interact with people in areas such as the People’s Republic of China and Taiwan.

Culture: China has a long and rich history. Whether your interests are in history, architecture, music, or cuisine, a basic understanding of Mandarin will enrich your appreciation and enjoyment of Chinese culture.

Beginning Chinese I

Saturdays: 9:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.
January 12 to March 2, 2013
West Hall 240, ASU Tempe Campus

Beginning Chinese II

Mondays: 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
January 14 to March 4, 2013
West Hall 240, ASU Tempe Campus

Registration: $180 per 8-week session including course materials.

Individual Tutoring Sessions: Individual tutoring session is available at $25 per hour.

Beginning Chinese Registration Information at http://confuciusinstitute.asu.edu/portal/learnchineseregform
This is a non-credit Chinese language class offered by the ASU Confucius Institute.

For more information about the Beginning Chinese classes and individual tutoring sessions, please contact Fannie Tam at fannie.tam@asu.edu or 480.965.7179.