Don’t miss the best conference for K-12 Chinese language teachers!

Mandarin Institute and University of Utah Confucius Institute present the Practical Literacy – Making it work in the classroom

March 8-9, 2014  Salt Lake City, University of Utah

We invite you to preconference schools visits and Park City Shopping/Skiing Excursions Friday March 7, 2014

Never has there been a conference like this that will tackle the tough questions every Chinese language teacher has. Engage in conversations with Master Teachers, Leading Schools and Experts as they share proven strategies and activities for increasing literacy.

- What are the most effective strategies for learning new characters?
- What is the best way to increase my students’ literacy?
- What is the role of rote memorization?
- What resources will help me teach Chinese reading and writing?

If you’ve got these questions and more please join us at CEC 2014!

See you in Utah!
