

Independent Chinese Documentary Film

Wu Wenguang and the Memory Project Filmmakers

Featuring Wu Wenguang, Zhang Mengqi, Liu Xiaolei, and Zhang Ping

Monday, Nov. 14 | 5:00–8:30pm

Film Screening: Zhang Mengqi's Self-Portrait: Building the Bridge at 47 KM | 5:00pm

followed by

“Reading Hunger” lecture and performance | 6:30pm

The Q&A with filmmakers

7:45-8:30pm

Pima Room, MU

 free and open to the public

Tuesday, Nov. 15 | 4:00–6:00pm

Coffee Meet and Greet with the Filmmakers

West Hall 135 and Secret Garden

 free and open to the public

The Memory Project is a documentary film series curated by the independent Chinese filmmaker Wu Wenguang that was founded in 2010. As of 2016, the project features the work of more than two hundred filmmakers that return to their ancestral villages to research the Great Famine period by collecting oral interviews and documentary footage from relatives and other villagers in 22 provinces and 190 villages.

For more info

Dr. Angie Chau
acchau@asu.edu

SPONSORED BY: School of International Letters and Cultures | ASU Confucius Institute | ASU Art Museum | ASU Library | College of Liberal Arts and Sciences | ASU Film and Media Studies | Center for Film, Media, and Popular Culture