

BEGINNING 汉语 CHINESE

汉语

The Confucius Institute at Arizona State University now offers Beginning Chinese and Individual Tutoring in Chinese.

These courses are designed for individuals to gain a basic knowledge of Mandarin.

Why Learn Chinese?

Mandarin Chinese is the most widely used language in the World. Learn to speak Mandarin and you can speak with millions of people around the world.

Business: Having a Mandarin language conversational skill will allow you to compete effectively in the global economy; China is one of America's largest trading partners. Business people who have this skill have an advantage in connecting with the Chinese market.

Travel: Asia is a popular travel destination. A basic knowledge of Mandarin will allow you to interact with people in areas such as the People's Republic of China and Taiwan.

Culture: China has a long and rich history. Whether your interests are in history, architecture, music, or cuisine, a basic understanding of Mandarin will enrich your appreciation and enjoyment of Chinese culture.

Beginning Chinese I

Fridays: 4:30 pm to 6:30 pm

January 24 to March 28, 2014

West Hall 240, ASU Tempe Campus

Beginning Chinese II

Thursdays: 4:30 pm to 6:30 pm

January 30 to March 27, 2014

West Hall 240, ASU Tempe Campus

Beginning Chinese I and II are designed for individuals with little or no exposure to Chinese. It is an 8-week course with one class session per week. This class covers topics related to business, travel and general communications.

Registration: $180 per 8-week session

Individual Tutoring Sessions: Individual tutoring session is available at $25 per hour.

Beginning Chinese Registration Information at <http://confuciusinstitute.asu.edu/portal/learnchineseregform>

This is a non-credit Chinese language class offered by the ASU Confucius Institute
For more information about the Beginning Chinese classes and individual tutoring sessions, please contact Fannie Tam at fannie.tam@asu.edu or 480.965.7179