

Complete One Year of Chinese in Two Months

- Language & cultural immersion in one of the most important economic centers in western China.
- Home of richly diverse geographical and cultural sites such as Jiuzhaigou or “the Yosemite of China”, giant panda sanctuaries, and the historically famous Three Kingdom period.
- Earn one year of ASU’s Chinese language courses through 160 hours of classroom instruction and one-on-one tutoring.

Program Details:

Location:

Sichuan University, Chendgu, China

Program Dates:

June 16 to August 13, 2014

Eligibility: 2.75 GPA, two previous semesters of ASU Chinese, Sophomore equivalent of credits

Credits Earned While Abroad: CHI 201 + 202, CHI 301 + 302, or CHI 401 + 402

Program Fee: $3,300 (tentative)

Application Information:

Application Deadline:

March 1, 2014

Contact: Katie Curiel

Katie.curiel@asu.edu

Financial Aid & Scholarships: Travel grants, scholarships, and additional financial aid options available.

<https://studyabroad.asu.edu/?go=finance>

ASU Confucius Institute Fellowship:

Range from $500-1000 at

<http://confuciusinstitute.asu.edu>

Apply today at silc.asu.edu/studyabroad

This program is provided through a partnership with ASU’s School of International Letters and Cultures, the ASU Study Abroad Office, the ASU Confucius Institute, the School of Overseas Study at Sichuan University, and the University of Washington.