The Confucius Institute and The Chinese Language Flagship Program at ASU are pleased to host the AP Chinese Workshop. This workshop is designed to update educators on various facets of AP Chinese instruction, including the pedagogical principles and classroom applications of AP Chinese, methods for enhancing students’ learning skills, a summary of the format, questions and answers, scoring guidelines and grades distribution of the 2009 AP Chinese Exam.

DATE: SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2009
TIME: 8:30 – 4:00 P.M.
PLACE: UNIVERSITY CLUB, ASU TEMPE CAMPUS
PRESENTER: DR. T. RICHARD CHI

Dr. T. Richard Chi, University of Utah. Professor Chi has taught Chinese language, culture, and linguistics for over 25 years. He is the author of the College Board AP Chinese One-Day Workshop Manual and has taught several AP Chinese workshops and summer institutes in the U.S. and abroad since 2006. As College Board Advisor, he served on the AP Chinese Development Committee in 2006-2008. He is currently serving on the AP Chinese Language and Culture Curriculum Development and Assessment Committee. His research areas include second language learning and assessment, curriculum model development, language learning strategies, and the use of technology for instruction and assessment.

Registration: To register for the workshop, please fill out the registration form and send it with a check of $20.00 to ASU Confucius Institute, Arizona State University, PO Box 871702, Tempe, AZ 85287-1702. Lunch will be served at the University Club. Space in this workshop is limited to 35 people. Please contact Fannie Tam with questions, fannie.tam@asu.edu or (480) 965-7179.

*Sponsored by: ASU Confucius Institute
The Chinese Language Flagship Program at ASU*