“From STARTALK to Flagship: ASU Chinese Language Camp” offered a 15-day residential program for 11-12th grade students in Arizona to increase their motivation and proficiency levels in Chinese through a highly individualized and task-based curriculum.

Chinese Language Classes – All students took Chinese language classes in the mornings. Language instruction was delivered through group lessons, individual instruction, and peer mentoring.

I) Beginner Level Class I
- Students with no prior knowledge of Chinese
- Focused on developing basic listening and speaking skills

II) Beginner Level Class II
- Students who studied Chinese for one or two years
- Focused on developing and increasing listening, speaking, reading and writing skills

III) Intermediate Level Class
- Students who took Chinese for 3 years or more
- Focused on developing and increasing reading and writing skills

Chinese Cultural Classes – All students participated in Chinese cultural activities in the afternoons. Instructors and guest speakers gave short presentations related to traditional Chinese culture.

- Focused on increasing students’ knowledge of Chinese culture
- Offer hands-on activities in various Chinese cultural classes:
  - Chinese Knots
  - Chinese Calligraphy
  - Chinese Painting
  - Chinese Dance
  - Chinese Paper-Cut
  - Martial Art