University Immersion Program
Sichuan University
Call for Students

June 30–July 13, 2019

The University Immersion Program at Sichuan University is designed to provide international students the opportunity to gain campus experience in one of the top 10 Chinese Universities and explore the unique cultures of southwestern China. It offers a wide range of courses to meet the academic needs of students studying abroad and provides an opportunity for intensive Chinese cultural studies. Previous Chinese language study is not required. All courses are taught in English.

Program Highlights
- Study with Sichuan University full-time students
- Mingle with students from around the world
- Experience Chinese life in a distinctive living and learning environment
- Broad and diverse range of courses available
- Field trips to minority areas, world historical, cultural and natural heritage sites (Buddhist and Taoist temples and the world-famous Chengdu giant panda breeding center)
- Numerous opportunities to take part in local buddy cultural experiences and academic events

Program Fees
Scholarships are offered by Sichuan University to international students selected into this program.
