2018 CHINA SUMMER CAMP FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

The China Summer Camp for High School Students is a Chinese language and culture camp supported by the Confucius Institute Headquarters in collaboration with the Confucius Institute at Arizona State University. This 2-week program aims to deepen high school students’ understanding and knowledge in Chinese language and culture.

Location: Beijing and Chengdu, China
Dates: June 18 to July 2, 2018

Application and additional information about 2018 China Summer Camp is available at:
https://confuciusinstitute.asu.edu/content/hanban-summer-camp

Application Materials:
The application package must contain:
1. Completed application form
2. A current transcript (unofficial copies accepted)
3. A typed essay of your personal goals and camp expectations (Max: 300 word)
4. One recommendation form from your Chinese teacher and/or counselor.
5. Copy of passport page with picture

Application Deadline:
Postmarked by Saturday, March 10, 2018
Ensure all application materials are included in one envelope.

Application Submission:
ASU Confucius Institute
P.O. Box 871202
Tempe, AZ 85287-1202

Criteria:
- Citizenship: U.S.
- Minimum GPA: 3.00
- Academic Level: 9th – 12th (including students entering 9th and graduating seniors)
- Chinese Proficiency: Has taken or is currently taking Chinese classes

Applicants will be notified early April if they have been selected as a finalist to be interviewed.

Program Cost:
A non-refundable $2,500 fee is due on April 10, 2018. This fee includes airfare, China visa, program fees, room and board, transportation and sightseeing in China.

Questions:
Contact Fannie Tam at fannie.tam@asu.edu or Grace Xie at wenjing.xie@asu.edu.